REPUBLICAN REPRESENTATIVE CONVENTION.

The Republicans of Macon and De Witt counties will meet in delegate convention at Decatur, Ill., on THURSDAY, AUGUST 31st, 1876,

at one o'clock p. m., for the purpose of nominating two candidates for Representative in the State Legislature. The basis of representation will be as follows:

Macon county, 6
De Witt, 6
J. M. CLOKEY,
Chairman District Com.

In McDonough county, this state, the Democrats have nominated a running ex-rebel for sheriff, while the Republican candidate is an ex-Union soldier.

ISHAM G. HARRIS, is the elector at large from Tennessee on the Tilden ticket. Harris, more than any other man in Tennessee, is responsible for taking that state out of the Union. He has never been cured of his secession ideas, and is at heart as much a rebel now as he was in 1861. But he is a reformer.

THE Golden Rule draws these sharply outlined contrasts between the two presidential candidates. "Hayes is frank and outspoken, Tilden is tricky and cunning. Hayes is a patriot who seeks the good of his country; Tilden is an unprincipled politician who seeks his own advancement. The reform of one is honest and sincere, that of the other is a pretense."

THE Republicans of Springfield intend to formally dedicate their campaign headquarters—the old court house—to night. There will be speeches by next Governor Cullom and others, a grand torchlight procession by the boys in blue and a generally enthusiastic time. The Republicans of the capital city are waking up to the work before them, and are determined, if vigilance and activity will accomplish, to turn out a majority this fall for Hayes and Wheeler.

RAILROAD freights are 'away down,' and not even the furious anti-monopolist of four years ago can complain. Says the New York Tribune:

"Twenty cents per hundred pounds to Chicago is decidedly cheap, but one railroad is making contracts at only 16 cents to Chicago, and another, it is announced, has made six months' contract at 13 cents to St. Louis. If that is not low enough, the Granger may take comfort in the assertion that the Central has made contracts at 9 cents per 100 pounds, to St. Louis, binding for eighteen months."

AT these figures, says the Chicago Journal, there is no profit for the railroads, and, if long kept up, will end in placing railroad stock "within the reach of the humbles," and in making every one who chooses to invest, a "bloated bondholder."

COL. BOB INGLETON will shortly be in Mine, where he is to deliver four speeches. Mr. Blaine, who recently won the presidential nomination to one of them, naturally sets great store by Col. Bob's speeches. He promises him an audience of 60,000 people for the four.—Chicago Tribune.

FRACTIONAL CURRENCY.

Rapid progress, says an exchange, is being made in the redemption of fractional currency, notwithstanding the apparent slowness. There is now outstanding $32,900,000, against $45,852,000 on the 1st of February—a reduction in six months of nearly $13,000,000, or more than a third probably of the whole amount in circulation. The highest scrip calculation ever reached was in February, 1874, when it was up to $48,640,000, from which it had fallen to a little over $40,000,000, last year; so just before the issue of silver coin began, the amount in circulation was greater than it had been for some time. The redemption and destruction of the paper change goes on at the rate of $1,500,000 a month. Very little of the older issues come in for redemption, and the estimates of the amount destroyed in circulation have all been too low. Of the first two issues, less than $5 was sent in last month, although $7,411,941 is still outstanding. Of the third and fourth issues, still amounting to over $10,000,000, less than $200,000 were presented. Probably not more than $25,000,000 will be presented in the future, leaving a loss in the pockets of the people of $18,000,000.

AN exchange says

"The total loss in consequence of the decline in prices which has occurred since the 1st of April on the pork and lard in store in the United States, is over $6,000,000. It is feared that the heavy loss will cause the failure of a good many dealers who are carrying stock. Of this loss, $1,500,000 falls on Chicago."

Those who fail on account of "carrying stock" will not be apt to get much sympathy from the consumers, who have been compelled to pay twenty cents a pound for lard for the last year, on account of this "carrying" process. The men who look up in store hundreds of millions of dollars' worth of a prime necessity in every household in the country, for the purpose of extorting an exorbitant price from the consumer, ought to fail, and the sooner the better for the community.

FAMILIAR as Mr. Tilden professes to be with the financial affairs of the government, it is surprising that in so grave a document as his letter of acceptance he should have exaggerated the amount of taxes collected since the passage of 1865 by the amount of $453,000,000. "The Federal taxes of the last eleven years," he says, "reach the gigantic sum of four thousand five hundred millions." They reached the exact amount of $4,047,643,757, or upwards of four hundred and fifty millions less than Mr. Tilden makes the aggregate. His very sound advice that the Nation, like the individual, should live within its income, implies a failure on the part of the government to do so. If it had not lived within its income, how could it, in eleven years, have paid $659,700,000 of its war debt, in addition to $1,338,101,456 interest on the principal? Moreover, the coin debt has been reduced $410,000,000, and the coin interest $29,000,000. When a man not only meets the current expenses of his family and business, and reduces his indebtedness rapidly, besides paying the interest and incidental expenses, he can be congratulated that he has lived within his income, and it would be a misrepresentation to assert that he had not done so. It is unquestionably true that greater economy might have been practiced, and in so far as Mr. Tilden or any other man is influential in sealing down expenditures, he deserves the thanks of the people, but he is not justified in assuming a condition of things for which he has no support in facts, for partisan purposes merely, and especially if he be a self-exploited reformer, as Mr. Tilden is.—Cincinnati Commercial.

THE energetic measures that were to have made short work of the Cuban insurrection have not come to pass according to promise, and the welfare of the insurgents continues to be prosecuted with fearful ferocity. A fort in Cienfuegos, garrisoned by fourteen Spanish soldiers, was attacked by a band of sixty rebels, whose demand for its surrender being refused, they burned the fort and with it the garrison of fourteen. The next day a Spanish detachment numbering 106 men were attacked and routed by a superior insurgent force, twenty-three of the regular troops and their commander being killed.—Chicago Tribune.

THE National Labor Council held a meeting in Washington City on the 10th, and adopted a resolution pledging their united support to Peter Cooper for president, he being, in their judgment, "a perfect type" of the great citizenship of the republic, but express the conviction that "Hon. S. F. Cary is too heavy a weight to allow success being attained." The council suggested the names of R. F. Trevellick, Alex. Campbell, and Franklin Landers as substitutes for Cary.

REMOVAL.—J. Kern, has removed his dry goods store to the room one door east of the post office.

THE NEXT SENATE.

The terms of twenty six senators will expire on the 4th of March next, and their successors will be chosen by legislatures elected next autumn. Of these senators, sixteen are republicans, namely: Clayton, of Arkansas, Logan of Illinois, Wright of Iowa, Harvey of Kansas, West of Louisiana, Blaine of Maine, Boutwell of Massachusetts, Ferry of Michigan, Alcorn of Mississippi, Hitchcock of Nebraska, Cragin of New Hampshire, Frelinghuysen of New Jersey, Anthony of Rhode Island, Robertson of South Carolina, and Howe of Wisconsin. Nine are democrats, viz: Goldwater of Alabama, Saulsbury of Delaware, Norwood of Georgia, Stevenson of Kentucky, Ransom of North Carolina, Kelly of Oregon, Cooper of Tennessee, Johnston of Virginia, and Davis of West Virginia, and one an independent, Hamilton of Texas. In addition to these, the new state of Colorado, whose politics is in doubt, will elect two senators, and Louisiana will elect a second senator to fill the vacancy for which Senator Pinchback so long contended.

Thus there will be twenty nine seats to be filled by new men next March. The present is divided between 42 republicans, twenty-nine democrats, and two independents, giving the republicans a majority of 11. The next senate will consist of seventy-six senators. If the democrats hold their present seats and elect nine others of the twenty nine senators to be chosen then, with a democratic vice president in the chair, they will control the upper house of congress.

The republicans may calculate on losing a senator in Arkansas, perhaps one in Mississippi, and one in Louisiana, but if the elections were fairly held, they would carry both of the latter states. The republicans will have to fight hard to save their senator in New Jersey, and there will be a close and exciting race in Colorado, but we think the republicans will win the election in that new silver state.—Chicago Tribune.

"What" says a correspondent of the Danville Commercial "can be said of Black?"

"That four years ago he was attorney for his father-in-law's railroad, and in the plenitude of bounded wealth that they manipulated, both were, like all arrogant capitalists, in favor of the hardest kind of hard money. Two years ago he snubbed in the most insulting manner the party and its candidate and in a letter referred to take the stump or commit himself to anything but the unyielding and rock rooted principles of the Bourbon democracy. But how is he to day? The wealth of the vast corporation of which he was the attorney is now under the guardianship of the courts, and the halcyon days of the General are rather historical than prospective, so with the other constituency (?) of democrats, who never permit the record they made last year to hinder their taking an opposite direction now, he turns his back upon the teachings of his fathers, pronounces the doctrines of the long lines of illustrious democrats who have preceded him folly and delusion, and comes out in favor of that reform which would keep the country on the ragged edge of financial agony for a quarter of a century. If this letter does not mean this, then it means nothing. There is a very great necessity for economy of expenditures at this time, growing out of a loss of revenue likely to arrive from a deficiency of appropriations to insure a thorough collection of the same. The reduction of revenue districts, diminution of special agents and a total abolition of supervisors may result in a great falling off of revenue. It may be a question to consider whether any expenditure can be well authorized under the river and harbor appropriation, further than to protect work already done and paid for. Under no circumstances will I allow expenditures not clearly authorized." (Signed) J. S. GRANT.

RUMORS brought into the agencies by casual Indians are generally either altogether baseless or greatly exaggerated. Two or three weeks ago Lane Deer returned with a terrible story of defeat and massacre which had befallen Crook's command, but it proved to be wholly false. Now comes a report from Bozema, Mont., brought by a Sioux squaw, who tells of a great battle between Crook and Sitting Bull, wherein the latter's forces were almost annihilated, and the remainder captured. It is pleasant to believe in this story than in the other, but there is not much greater probability of its truth.

THE State of New York alone has now nearly 1,000 cheese factories, and which use the milk of more than 250,000 cows, making therefrom 80,000,000 pounds of cheese, which is 1,000 pounds for every three cows. The production of the whole United States is over 250,000,000 pounds, of which 90,000,000 pounds are exported. England scarcely exports 250,000,000, while little Holland, which used to be the principle cheese producing country of the world, exports at present 60,000,000 pounds.

GRANT GIVES THE HOUSE ANOTHER WHOLE-SOME DOSE.

THE INDIAN WAR.

REPORTED CONFIRMATION OF THE NEWS FROM CROOK.

SUICIDE AT LINCOLN.

The O. & M. R. R. Strike

WASHINGTON, Aug. 14.—Mr. Morton has returned from Indiana. He says he has no intention of making another political speech in the senate, this session, and the report that he proposed repeating here the speech recently delivered by him in Indiana, has no foundation.

The president came to the capital at noon, to-day, accompanied by the attorney general, secretary of the treasury, secretary of the interior, and his private secretary. They will remain during the day for the examination of bills.

The house postal committee took no action, to-day, on the post-route bill, which was referred to the committee, Saturday. The bill was amended in the senate by adding to fast mail franking privilege, and it is understood the house will now non-concur in the amendments, since the house referred the bill to this committee, which will not be called again this session, to report, and a single objection will prevent them from reporting outside of the regular bill.

There is some talk among a few prominent senators of endeavoring to amend the house resolution to provide for adjournment at 12 o'clock to-night, but it is improbable that a majority will consent to fix an earlier date than to-morrow, or possibly Wednesday.

The president to-day, sent the following message to the house:

In affixing my signature to the river and harbor appropriation, No. 5,022, I deem it my duty to announce to the house of representatives my objection to some features of the bill and the reason why I sign it. It was obligatory upon the executive to expend all the money appropriated by congress, I should return the river and harbor bill with my objections, notwithstanding the great inconvenience to the public interests, resulting therefrom, and loss of previous expenditures from previous congresses, upon incomplete work.
